NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT OF REMAINING ISSUES

Plaintiff hereby gives notice that the remaining matter in this case—Plaintiff’s petition for costs and attorneys’ fees—has been settled by the parties in the amount of $374,999 that the County paid to Plaintiff and its attorneys in lieu of litigating a fees petition. Therefore Plaintiff will not be filing such petition, and the case may be closed.

Respectfully submitted,

CENTRO TEPEYAC
by its attorneys,

RELEASE AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

On May 19, 2010, Centro Tepeyac filed a lawsuit challenging a Resolution enacted by the Montgomery County Council, sitting as the Board of Health. On March 7, 2014, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland granted Centro Tepeyac's motion for summary judgment. On March 26, 2014, the District Court entered a final order enjoining the County from enforcing the Resolution and awarding nominal damages of $1 to Centro Tepeyac. Pending before the District Court is Centro Tepeyac's claim for attorneys' fees and costs. The parties have agreed to settle Centro Tepeyac's claims for attorneys' fees and costs, and to provide for the $1 nominal damages payment as described below.

For the sole consideration of Three Hundred and Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($375,000.00) paid to Centro Tepeyac and its attorneys, on behalf of the Defendants, Montgomery County, Maryland and the Montgomery County Council, Centro Tepeyac hereby releases, and forever discharges the Defendants and their officers, legal representatives, agents, servants and employees, for its claims for attorneys' fees and costs, and its claim for nominal damages, related to the above-captioned matter. This release and discharge does not release the injunction described above, which the District Court granted, but it does release all claims for
